

Monday in Wadesboro.

Leak of Richmond, Va., mother, Mrs. J. D. Leak.

Bridger, of Bladenboro, or parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Caligan returned Tuesday ended visit to friends at all Taft of Johnsonville, ing her parents, Mr. and ia.

campaign will be condesboro soon, and particgiven next week.

H., G. W. and G. C. Tice several days this week t and other places.

McFall will preach in the ethodist church Sunday l o'clock.

ine cow belonging to Mr. rn, of White Store town- : Saturday.

Thomas, of Wake Forest : Friday with his parents, C. D. Thomas, of Morven

Robinson has returned to Shelby. She was ac- her mother, Mrs. J. T.

Helen Dawson of Chicora . is spending the spring her parents, Mr. and wson.

L. Teal, J. A. Eller and ly attended the annual oodyear tire dealers' in : Monday night.

Maud Braswell, of Gul- ip, who fell and broke nall bones of her leg ago, is recovering nicely.

Chappell, Mrs. C. A. r. Robert Chappell, of are the guests of Mr after spending the spring holidays at home.

(BUY OLD SILK MILL.)

Messrs. H. B. Allen and W. Henry Liles have bought from the company which formerly operated the mill the old silk mill property in North Wadesboro, including the real estate, buildings and machinery. The real estate was traded for some time ago, and this week a deal was closed for the machinery. Messrs. Allen and Liles have made no announcement as to their plans for the property, but it is expected that the mill will be in operation before a great while.

MR. S. S. RICHARDSON.

Mr. S. S. Richardson died at his home a few miles from Monroe Wednesday morning about nine o'clock, after an illness of about 10 days. The funeral will be held this afternoon at three o'clock at the Richardson home, and many Wadesboroites expect to attend. Mr. Richardson was the father of Mrs. C. C. Bennett and of Mr. W. E. Richardson, of Wadesboro, and he had many friends here. He was one of the substantial and influential citizens of Union county. He was 74 years old, and is survived by his wife, Mrs. Rebecca Richardson, and by the following sons and daughters: W. E. Richardson and Mrs. C. C. Bennett, of Wadesboro; Mrs. Clara Dixon, of Charlotte; Miss Odessa Richardson, Messrs. M. H., Frank, and Clyde Richardson, of Union county.

MUSIC CONTEST COMING.

The annual county music contest will be held in the auditorium of the Wadesboro high school April 13th at 8 o'clock P. M.

High school and grammar grade pupils will compete in piano, chorus singing and in miscellaneous musical features. The miscellaneous part of the Norfolk brokers, and lost ly $50,000 when that f October, according to fore the federal referee here.

Judge Small had been cotton and grain, accorc timony, and had drawn his account with the company in July or Aug

Heavy Credit

Cobb Brothers & (bankruptcy in October, totaling $570,000 and Ju one of the heaviest cre ing to the schedule of bilities filed in federal Lost, Small Admits; D

Elizabeth City, Ar speculated and lost $27, name and an additional another name. I poc without squealing, and ago carried the story."

This was the answer Small, newly created to a query from newsp reference to a story sent folk tonight.

Endorsers of Mr. Sm tion were entirely fami facts.

Texas frog lived th in a corner-stone. It cc Weston (Ore.) Leader

