

festivities in Charlotte this week.

Mr. Joel Sellers, of Gullidge township, was dangerously sick Tuesday, but his condition is reported to be improved today.

The owner of a painted waiter, which was left at the cemetery Memorial Day, can get the waiter at the residence of Mrs. Frank Bennett.

Miss Annie Crowson's school at Poplar Hill will close Friday, June 1st, with an entertainment, to which the public is invited.

Mr. Geo. Singleton, owner of the Wadesboro silk mill, has given a lot, near the mill, to the Wadesboro Baptist church. The church will build a chapel on the lot this summer.

The meeting at the chapel, conducted by Revs. C. D. G. Yes and A. B. Candle, closed last night. As a result of the meeting ten persons gave their names to the ministers for baptism.

Dr. McLendon reports that he had a good crowd of farmers at Peachland Saturday to hear his speech on cotton. After the speaking a flourishing branch of the Cotton Association was organized.

Mr. J. H. Davis, of Burnsville township, was exhibiting here yesterday a sample of wool, taken from a last year's lamb, that was seventeen inches long. From two of lambs Mr. Davis sheared 19 pounds of wool.

We are requested to say that there will not be preaching at Poplar Hill church Saturday, as heretofore announced. There will be services at this church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, followed by a congregational meeting.

Mr. T. S. Lucas, of Savannah, Ga., was here yesterday and made arrangements with the Rocky River Springs Co., to conduct the hotel at the Springs again this summer. Mr. Lucas has had charge of the hotel the past two seasons and was popular with its patrons. The hotel will open June 20th.

Among the visitors from Wadesing Company.

Dr. Geo. P. Horton, of Washington, arrived here a few days ago and will spend some time in Wadesboro.

Misses Eunice Wall, Jenie B. Brent, Berta Moss and Eunice Rose are visiting Mrs. J. M. Sloan, in Gastonia, this week.

Miss Virginia Stanback arrived here last night from Peace Institute, Raleigh, and will spend a few days with Miss Bessie Dockery before going to her home at Mangum.

Mr. E. R. Simons, of Statesville is spending a few days here on business.

Miss Thornwell, of Fort Mill, S. C., spent Monday here with Mrs. T. B. Henry. From here she went to Morven, where she is visiting Mrs. T. W. DeVane.

Prof. W. J. Ferrell spent yesterday in Raleigh.

Miss Nora Bruton spent Saturday and Sunday in Charlotte and Concord.

Miss Hattie DeBery, of Wadeville, is visiting relatives in Wadesboro this week.

Mr. Hugh Pinkston is at home this week from Kings Business College, Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bruton, of Clarkton, spent Saturday here with the family of Mr. J. A. McRae.

Mrs. W. A. Musselwhite is visiting Mrs. W. H. Misenheimer, of the Deep Creek neighborhood.

Mrs. I. H. DePass, of Charlotte, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Marshall.

Mr. H. S. Pinkston, who has been living in Charlotte since the first of January, has returned to Wadesboro, his many friends will be glad to learn. Mr. Pinkston has accepted a position with Mr. W. C. Bivens, who is preparing to start a paper here.

Mrs. J. A. Covington and children and Miss Rosa Smith, of Rockingham, are visiting the family of Mr. E. F. Fenton.

Mr. J. A. Marsh of Union county

ing g ufact
for s for t
of c bette for 5 than 5 ce
in v
OX
For The forta seen 3 00
dle mad wea tent
Sou
the W